

DOZEN BODIES

FOUND BY RESCUERS WHO ARE ENCOUNTERING VERY GREAT DIFFICULTY.

BLACK DAMP APPEARING

Headless Trunks of Human Bodies and Some Without Limbs Make Fearful Sight.

Jacobs Creek, Pa., Dec. 21.—Of the 12 bodies recovered from the Darr mine all are in a very bad condition, some without heads, others with limbs entirely blown off, and all frightfully mangled. Three were discovered this morning. All the bodies recovered have been found in the main entry.

No attempt has yet been made to explore the side entries or butt entries or rooms, where over 200 bodies are supposed to be. The difficulty of the rescue work is hourly increasing, as black damp is found in even greater quantities as the men forge ahead. It will not be possible that any more bodies can be recovered until later, on account of the amount of wreckage strewn all along the main entrance, entering to where the men are.

The force of the explosion was terrific, tearing the large wooden supports and thick planks like paper. A hundred and fifty caskets arrived today.

TAFT FORCES MEET FORAKER AT HIS GAME

Toledo, O., Dec. 1.—The Republican State Central committee will meet January 2 at Columbus, for the purpose of selecting the time and place for holding the Republican State convention and the method of choosing delegates.

The call was issued by Chairman Walter Brown Saturday. The call was precipitated by the action of the Tenth district Congressional committee Friday at Portsmouth, in which the Foraker members of the committee insisted that the county central committees be permitted to appoint delegates. The committee was deadlocked. In the efforts of the Foraker faction to secure the appointment of delegates by the county central committee the Taft leaders profess to see the uncovering of Foraker's hand by which the senior senator expected to capture two national delegates from the Tenth district. The move was met promptly Saturday by the issue of a call for the state central committee. The early date set for the meeting, the Taft leaders believe, will effectively block any further attempt to play the same game.

THREATENED BALTIMORE, BUT A REPETITION OF 1904 CONFLAGRATION AVERTED.

MURDER

MAY DEVELOP FROM THE FINDING OF A SUIT CASE ON HEBRON ROAD.

Police Are Now at Work Investigating the Find of Trunk Section Men.

The finding of a suit case in the grass along the Hebron road by Lindsey Carlisle of Hebron and a gang of section men working on the traction line Saturday, may be the discovery of a murder or suicide. The police department was notified and Officer Hager was sent out.

The suit case was opened in police court and a motley collection of stuff was found. Two pairs of trousers, a shirt, shaving kit, an electric flashlight, a pair of nippers, two rolls of wire etc., were the contents.

On the notebook was written "Bridgeford Machine Tool Works, Rochester, N. Y." There was no name on it. A letter, the only clue, was dated May 8, 1907, and started, "Dear Abe," and signed "Theresa." It was evidently a refusal of marriage and stated that she could be nothing more than his sister, and according to the laws of church and her obligation she could not marry him. Death only would release her from her vows. She closes naively by asking if he cared as much for her as he did for his sister.

The men who discovered the suit case, a leather affair, smaller than the average one, were hunting for wood and stumbled across it in the grass. A silk umbrella was strapped across the top of it. It was in good condition and does not look as if it had fallen or had been thrown from a passing car. The name Abe is the only clue the police have to work on as there was not laundry marks on the shirt, 15 1-2, the trousers bore no marks and looked to be for a man of medium height. A small bag of markers with the name of a grocer at St. Clairsville, was also in the suit case.

ONLY A MINUTE

CAUGHT IN FIERCE GALE

Which Was the Cause of Some Delay. Ambassador Reid a Passenger on Steamer.

New York, Dec. 21.—With her log-book briefly recording a hurricane on Tuesday the Mauretania steamed up to quarantine Friday. The Mauretania was one minute behind the time made by the Lusitania on her maiden voyage westward. The Mauretania's time was 5 days and 55 minutes. Her days' runs were 41, 562, 553, 545, 603 and 489 to Sandy Hook Lightship. Total distance 2,780 miles; average speed, 23 knots per hour.

It was fair weather, with little sea sunning, on Sunday morning when the Mauretania steamed past Daunt's Rock. A little after noon on Tuesday the portended storm struck the ship, a solid cloud of rain at first, and then a wind that seemed to threaten the whole superstructure of the Mauretania. Three lifeboats, caught up in the grim mountains of water, that every now and then slipped over the bows, left their checks, and the planking of one of them smashed like matchwood.

Before the passengers went to bed the worst of the storm had passed, and in the night the gale blew itself out.

Whitlaw Reid and Sir Edward Grey, a member of Parliament, spoke at the concert on Thursday evening, which netted 65 pounds for the benefit of the seamen's fund.

"I have come home for Christmas, and shall return to England early in January," was all Mr. Reid would say. The Mauretania brought over 3,000 sacks of mail and $500,000 in specie.

BANQUET

GIVEN AT THE SELLER HOTEL TO THE PETIT JURORS AND GUESTS.

Judges of Common Pleas Court Were Present and Made Addresses of Interest.

Glad to be free from the tiring jury duty and the listening to cases of all sorts, yet sorrowful to think that they, who for three months had been thrown together constantly, might never be so close to each other again, the men who composed the recent petit jury, the judges, officials of the court and newspaper men enjoyed an elaborate banquet at the Seller Hotel last night. The menu, which was prepared by Mr. A. H. Seller, told better than words of his experience in the hotel business, and from start to finish the service was perfect.

The twenty-five men sat down at the table were: Judges Seward, Wickham, Mansfield, Jurors John M. Miller, C. W. Hoover, D. H. Barrick, Theodore Baker, James Coville, Frank Hunter, John Boyer, J. T. Oldaker, Frank Griffith, Charles Starck, George A. Bolin, S. P. Moore, William Weekly, Robert Marvin, A. T. Hull, J. C. Taylor, Mr. C. D. Lege, Sheriff Rodman, Deputy Sheriff Hindel, Clerk of Courts Harnsey, H. C. Cochran of the American Tribune and D. B. Kirk of the Advocate.

After the dinner chairs were pushed back and Foreman Oldaker of the jury, who acted as toastmaster, called upon Judge Mansfield for a few remarks. He spoke of his newness as a judge in this jurisdiction, but he was heartily glad that he had been sent to sit on the bench in Licking county as their methods of doing things were complete and very satisfactory. He said that the idea of holding a banquet after the close of the term of court was a novel one but thought enjoyable nevertheless. His remarks were humorous and were much appreciated by his hearers. He also spoke of the jury system in this county and thought it the greatest institution of the age. He also made reference to the different officials of the court and their work. In a condensed way he referred to the different courts and told of their work.

Judge Wickham, who has been sitting on the bench in Richland county was next called on by Toastmaster Oldaker. He started his remarks by

WATCH BACKACHE

This Simple Home Mixture is Said to Prevent Serious Kidney Trouble Every Time.

More people succumb each year to some form of kidney trouble than any other cause. The slightest form of kidney derangement often develops into Bright's kidney disease, diabetes or dropsy. When either of these diseases are suspected the sufferer should at once seek the best medical attention possible. Consult only a good, first-class physician, leave patent medicines alone.

There are many of the lesser symptoms of kidney trouble which can be treated at home as stated by a well-known authority. For some of these, such as backache, pain in the region of the kidneys, weak bladder, frequency, (especially at night), painful scalding and other urinary troubles, try the following simple home remedy: Fluid Extract Dandelion one-half ounce, Compound Kargon one ounce, Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. These simple ingredients are harmless and can be obtained at any good prescription pharmacy and anyone can mix them by shaking well in a bottle. The dose for adults is a teaspoonful after each meal and again at bedtime.

There is no better general remedy known to relieve all forms of rheumatism either, because it acts directly upon the kidneys and blood. It cleans the clogged up pores in the kidneys so they can filter and strain from the blood the poisonous uric acid and waste matter which if not eliminated remain in the blood, decompose and settle about the joints and muscular tissues, causing the untold suffering and deformity of rheumatism.

Backache is nature's signal notifying the sufferer that the kidneys are not acting properly. "Take care of your kidneys," is now the physician's advice to his patients.

Refreshments were then served by the committee, Mesdames W. A. Erman, Jessie English, Miss Mikesell, and Miss Dora Brenstuhl. The meeting then adjourned to meet the second Thursday in January.

The principal event in musical circles this week was the piano recital given by the pupils of Mrs. Charles B. White on Tuesday evening at her studio on South Third street. The work of the students reflected much credit upon Mrs. White as an instructor of ability, and proved that they aside from consistent work were possessed of much talent. The program was a varied and artistic one and the work of Miss Anna Riegger, who rendered nearly one half the numbers on the program, won much favorable comment from the students and bespoke much for her in the future. Appended is the program:

ARREST

Of Fourteen Year Old Boy Charged With Petit Larceny—Caught
at Home.

The arrest of young Willie Den-inger, a 14-year-old boy, will probably stop the plague of petit larceny that has been going the rounds of Newark for some time.

For some time past the police have been bothered with reports of minor robberies, people entering offices and the removal of smaller articles of little value. Last Wednesday the insurance office of W. B. Plyler was cutered and a lady's gold ring was found and in a peculiar way.

An insurance office in the new skyscraper was entered, but the thief was frightened away and let the roll top of a desk fall and it caught his hand, a ring on his finger caught between the lid and the desk proper and the intruder made his escape by pulling his hand loose from his ring.

The boy now under arrest was seen in the different offices in the building and suspicion centered on him.

He also paid a visit to the dental office of Dr. Bond in the West End.
The Chief found he had gone to Tiffin. The police in that city were notified to be on the lookout for him.
He was promptly nabbed by the police.
The Chief left for there and returned with the boy Saturday morning.

The boy was taken over to Judge Bristor's Juvenile court and his case will probably be handled there.

The eating of the placenta, or afterbirth, which seems to be an instinctive trait with most cows, is said to be an inheritance of their wild and primeval state, when this was done to prevent wild animals from locating and destroying the newborn calf. Consensus of opinion seems to be that a cow is neither better nor worse for this violation of her otherwise strictly herbivorous instinct.

While the phonograph furnishes a ready and not very expensive means of entertainment for the home, the wisdom of investing in one is questionable if the possession of it tends to discourage the development of any latent musical talent that may be possessed by members of the family. For, after all, there is no music that means quite so much as that produced by musical instruments touched by the human hand or by a union of voices in the singing of a favorite hymn or melody.

Newark stores will be open evenings until Christmas.

If any of our readers wish to give their fruit trees a wash for protective purposes the following recipe will be found a good one: Water, one gallon; soap, one pound; carbolic acid, two to four ounces. This should be mixed thoroughly and may be put on with a brush or old broom. To be effective it would have to be repeated in case of hard rains, which would wash most of it off.

In preparing the Christmas gifts it is well to remember that if your friends are the right kind they will prize the remembrance you send them not by the amount of money you put into it, but by the degree of thoughtfulness and consideration which you put into its selection and preparation. This plan puts gift giving within the reach of all, however modest their means.

Currency Reform Law Badly Needed.

By WILLIAM SULZER, Representative from New York.

WE HAVE THE WORST CURRENCY AND BANKING SYSTEM IN THE WORLD. IT IS ALL FOR THE BANKS AND NOTHING FOR THE PEOPLE. IT IS OBSOLETE AND INADEQUATE.

Congress must pass a CURRENCY REFORM LAW immediately. The present stringency is caused by a few bankers and a few individuals hoarding money, and most of it is the money of the people. The national banks MUST GET OUT OF THE GOVERNING BUSINESS, and the government must do its own financial business like other great countries.

Just think of it. There is $200,000,000 of the PEOPLE'S MONEY deposited by the government in the national banks of the country and not drawing a dollar interest, and these banks are LOANING THAT MONEY OUT TO THE PEOPLE at 10 to 30 per cent and even higher rates of interest.

These banks now have the AUDACITY to demand that the government issue more bonds in time of peace to give them a chance to get more money from the people and loan it to them again at high rates of interest. It is ALL WRONG, and congress should remedy the evil at once.

A CHRISTMAS GREETING.

How we would like to meet and greet all our old friends! A privilege only granted the living.

The old year will soon be a thing of the past and one can never tell what friends one meets and greets in the new year.

To every one! Our friends, our patrons, we thank you for the friendship and patronage you have extended us and our success has been due to the confidence bestowed.

Twenty-five years since The Great Western has taken its stand among you, during which time we have had the pleasure of meeting thousands of customers. Time after time we have sold them our goods. The few can be counted whose patronage and friendship we have lost. These few we want to regain as our fair treatment, honest values, and mutual interests have always brought honest results. We have trusted to good judgment, what experience has taught us our friends and patrons possess, and we feel proud to have your friendship and want to be considered a friend of yours.

Let us enjoy the future as in the past and ours is and always will be fair and square dealing, with malice towards none, and charity for all, in hope to meet you as usual in the New Year. Wishing all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

SECRET SOCIETIES

K. O. T. M. Octagon Tent 132, held a regular meeting on Friday evening. Three new members had the initiatory work conferred upon them by the degree team. At the close of the meeting a banquet was served which was thoroughly enjoyed by the large number of members present.

Odd Fellows. Newark Lodge No. 623 I. O. O. F., held a very interesting meeting last Monday night. We had a good attendance and several visitors were present. We conferred the second degree on one candidate in royal style. Next Monday night the third degree will be conferred on a class of candidates. The Noble Grand reported several brothers on the sick list. Newark lodge deserves great credit in the manner they look after the sick. Every sick brother receives $1.50 per week and a nurse when required. Two candidates were elected to membership last meeting night. We want every transient Odd Fellow in Newark to come to our hall and register. You can not expect the relief committee to look after you when you are sick unless they know where you reside.

Royal Arcanum. At the session of Bayard Taylor Council, Royal Arcanum, of this city to be held on Monday evening there will be work in the initiatory degree. The annual settlement of the officers will also be made, followed by an address by Brother O. S. Gilbert on the subject of "Music." Brother A. C. Davis gave a talk on the subject of "Lumber," at the first session. Brother Davis has a wide experience in this business, and being an able orator his talk was highly appreciated. Brother J. B. Jones was the fifth member of Bayard Taylor Council to die during the year.

Masonic. Newark lodge, No. 97, F. & A. M., will confer the Master's degree on three candidates at the meeting to-night. The work will be followed by a smoker.

On Thursday night of next week there will be work in the Fellowcraft and Master's degrees in Acme lodge, F. & A. M.

At the regular meeting of Acacia lodge, No. 464, F. & A. M., of Wilkins, this county, held on Thursday evening, the officers elect were installed for the ensuing term, the installation ceremonies being conducted by James W. Rutledge of this city.

given by Cedar Camp and all neighbors who are in on the turkey supper are assured a good time. All that you have to do is to secure the adoption of just one new member or secure a member by transfer card and you will be entitled to a seat at the turkey supper. That doesn't seem hard to do, neighbors, and you should try and secure the adoption of some friend that will make a good Woodman and who needs the protection. In the last three months Cedar Camp has made a good record, having adopted 13 in the month of October, 25 in November, and 19 so far in December. At the next regular meeting on Monday night there will be several candidates to be installed as their certificates are now in the hands of the clerk, and a good attendance of the members is desired. If you know of a member who holds membership in another camp, invite him to come with you to our meeting and try and induce him to transfer his membership to Cedar Camp.

Home Guards of America. The members and friends of Newark Home No. 34 will please bear in mind that a Christmas tree and entertainment will be held at their lodge room Christmas night, and the members of the committee hope for a good attendance. Those having recitations, dialogues, etc., will please have their names and titles written on paper and give to the secretary on arrival at the hall. Good music will be rendered. All members and their friends are welcome. Come early.

American Insurance Union. Newark Chapter No. 24, A. I. U., met in regular session Thursday evening with a good attendance. Five applications were presented and accepted. The marshal found one candidate in waiting, who received the teachings of the order by the Ladies' Degree staff.

Fred Roeser, Elmer Blizzard, Anna Jenkins, Lizzie Kennetts and Anna Schnajdt of the sick list, were reported as improving nicely. Henry T. Linner of Pine street, is at St. Francis Hospital, Columbus, having undergone an operation on Friday last.

"The Merry Milk Maids" was rendered at Weller's Theater, December 19, by Kanesville chapter No. 35, and was well patronized by members from the Newark chapter. This popular opera will be produced again at New Lexington, December 30, and at Roseville, December 31. They are making quite a hit wherever played.

The Dance Club will give another of their popular married people's dances next Thursday, December 26. These dances are greatly enjoyed by both young and old. Friends holding invitations that have guests from out of town may attend without the written invitation for their guests.

The next regular meeting of the chapter will be on January 2 at which time installation of officers will take place and refreshments served.

JUNIOR CIVIC LEAGUE WORK.

Interest Taken by Children in Improving Owatonna, Minn.

The Owatonna (Minn.) Civic league recently gave its second banquet of the summer to the members of the Junior league, and at this time 250 children who are members of the organization were regaled with an interesting programme and then treated to ice cream, cake and other dainties provided by the civic organization.

When President Rowland asked that every child who intended to enter the contest next year raise his hand every child in the room responded, and the interest taken in the work by the children has been truly remarkable, says a special dispatch from Owatonna to the St. Paul Pioneer Press. Lawns have been improved from unsightly, ill kept grounds to lawns which are a credit to the city, and gardens have been cultivated in a manner which would delight a professional garden artist. The league has prevailed upon the city council to make it a misdemeanor for any one to throw waste paper or rubbish of any sort in the streets or to clog the gutters in any way. Now whenever any one is seen to throw discarded envelopes or scraps of paper into the city.

It may be safely concluded that he is not a resident of Owatonna. Never has anything been done in Owatonna where the results have been so apparent in a short time and where the city has benefited so greatly.

The Civic league affairs are conducted by a body of officers and an executive committee, the latter having charge of the work, the system of dividing the work into wards being followed. The children are furnished with seeds to plant and they cultivate their own flower gardens. Each child who becomes a member of the Junior league is furnished also with a hand-some button or badge bearing the words, "Owatonna Junior League," and there are now nearly 300 such buttons worn in the city, every wearer of one of these taking it upon himself to aid in making Owatonna a city beautiful. Substantial cash prizes are given for those ranking best in the care of the lawns and the gardens, and the improvements made as well as the present conditions are taken into consideration in making these awards.

Plans are already under way for an early start next spring. A campaign is to be waged against the many unsightly signs and billboards scattered throughout the city.

THE OLDEST MAN IN AMERICA

Escaped the Terrors of Many Winters By Using Pe-ru-na.

"I Attribute my Extreme Old Age to the Use of Pe-ru-na."

IN speaking of his good health and extreme old age, Mr. Brock says: "After a man has lived in the world as long as I have, he ought to have found out a great many things by experience. I think I have done so."

"One of the things I have found out to my entire satisfaction is the proper thing for ailments that are due directly to the effects of the climate. For 118 years I have withstood the changeable climate of the United States."

"I have always been a very healthy man, but, of course, subject to the affections which are due to sudden changes in the climate and temperature."

"As for Dr. Hartman's remedy, Peruna, I have found it to be the best, if not the only reliable remedy for these affections. It has been my standby for many years, and I attribute my good health and extreme old age to this remedy."

"It exactly meets all my requirements. It protects me from the evil effects of sudden changes; it gives me strength; it keeps my blood in good circulation. I have come to rely upon it almost entirely for the many little things for which I need medicine."

"When epidemics of la grippe first began to make their appearance in this country I was a sufferer from this disease."

"I had several long sieges with the grip. At first I did not know that Peruna was a remedy for this disease. When I heard that la grippe was epidemic catarrh, I tried Peruna for la grippe and found it to be just the thing."

In a later letter, Mr. Brock writes: "I am well and feeling as well as I have for years. I would not be without Peruna."

Yours truly,

Isaac Brock.

Mr. Isaac Brock, 118 Years Old Last Birthday.

ISAAC BROCK, a citizen of McLennan County, Texas, has lived for 118 years. For many years he resided at Bosque Falls, eighteen miles west of Waco, but now lives with his son-in-law at Valley Mills, Texas. Some time ago, by request, Uncle Isaac came to Waco and sat for his picture, holding in his hand a stick cut from the grave of General Andrew Jackson. Mr. Brock is a dignified old gentleman, showing few signs of decrepitude. His family Bible is still preserved, and it shows that the date of his birth was written 118 years ago.

The crop report of the bureau of statistics of the department of agriculture places the corn crop of the country for the year 1907 at 2,553,722,000 bushels. This is 373,634,000 bushels short of the yield of 1906. The average yield per acre in 1906 was 50.3 bushels, while for the year past it was but 26 bushels. Considering its sale and feeding value the worth of the crop is not far from $1,250,000,000.

Folks who try to outdo each other in meanness usually succeed, but with no benefit resulting or satisfaction coming to themselves. Competition of the other sort, where one tries to outdo his fellow in kindness, is the only rivalry that is really worth while. It is this that makes the world a brighter and better place to live in this Christmas tide than it was a year ago and a vastly better place than it was a hundred years ago.

AMUSEMENTS

WHITE'S FAUST.

In brief, the plot is as follows: Faust, a learned alchemist, doctor of philosophy, having reached that age when all pleasures that the world contains fails, invokes the aid of the spirits to give him new emotions, that life might be worth living. In response to his frenzied appeal Mephisto appears and agrees to give Faust youth, health and passions, and all the pleasurable enjoyment to be drawn therefrom, upon condition that when the gamut is run his soul shall belong to Mephisto. Faust is dazzled and held spellbound by a beautiful vision of Marguerite, wrapped in an angelic halo, which fades away as he passionately rushes upon it. He accedes to Mephisto's demand and a compact is drawn between them. The aged and senile philosopher is transformed into a handsome youth, burning with passion and eager with anticipation. From this time forward his one thought is of Marguerite. Then follows his meetings with her, their mutual love, his betrayal of her confidence, the poisoning of her mother, while seeking only to make her slumber more deep; the return of Valentine, her soldier brother, whose anguish and rage know no bounds when informed of his blasted home. He meets Faust in duel and by the devil's aid is killed. Insidious Mephisto excites the justice loving neighbors of Marguerite by informing them of the seeming unnatural murder of her mother, and she is carried off to prison. Faust finds his way into Marguerite's cell partially demented. He proposes to carry her away to escape the dread consequences of her crime, but at this time the gentle spirit goes out and Mephisto claims Faust as his own, who is saved by the intervention of the spirit of repentance and remorse Mephisto claims Faust as his own, highly endorse Faust as a moral lesson and critics of great repute dwell long in praise of this presentation and claim this season's scenic display to surpass all previous attempts. This production is looked to appear at the Auditorium Christmas afternoon and night.

Her Little Prayer.

Former Comptroller Edward M. Groat of New York city tells a pretty little Christmas story.

He said that a little girl relative of his was visiting her grandmother on Thanksgiving day. Already the child had begun to speculate on what Santa Claus was to bring her at Christmas time, and, as children—especially girls—will do when they are at the home of an indulgent friend, she began to rummage through closets and drawers.

In the course of her investigation she came upon a brand new white muff. It was the very thing she had wanted, and she knew that Santa Claus' chief purchasing agent—grandma—had obtained it for her.

Taxed with it, grandma admitted the truth.

"Dut," she said, "you must forget all about it until Christmas day."

That night as she was being put to bed the child astonished her mother by adding this to her evening prayer:

"Please, God, make me forget all about the little white muff Santa Claus is to bring."—New York Times.

Sore Throat Don'ts

When the child have sore throat, don't let her suck with lumpy food. Don't torture them with a foul, spicy piece of fat meat, or spread about the mouth. Don't imagine there's medical virtue in an old sock or piece of red flannel. Don't believe in anti-magic superstitions.

A sore throat is a serious matter and is not to be healed by such make-believe remedies. The use of such methods is simply putting the patient to needless torture. Use a salt and water gargle and give the tonsils a good beating with a TONSILING and the throat will heal quickly.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

JOHN BOWMAN.

John Bowman was born in Liberty township, Licking county, in 1837, and departed this life in his farm home near Homer, December 16, 1907, aged 72 years, one month and 26 days. He was married to Mary Jane Leos in 1854. He leaves a widow, four sons, Henry, Samuel, Ora and Charles, and three daughters Louisa Stout, Clara Evans and Della Bowman, and a number of grandchildren, to mourn their loss.

No man in his community enjoyed as well as merited, a larger circle of friends. He was known by everyone as a man of sterling integrity. He was a member of the Methodist church in Homer nearly 25 years and was entrusted as an office bearer from the beginning. He enjoyed the love of God in his heart, and passed to his reward in the full assurance of faith. W. B. Maughman, pastor.

MISS CARRIE MCKNIGHT.

Miss Carrie McKnight, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Z. McKnight, died at the home, three miles north of Hanover, on Friday evening, after an illness of some time with consumption, aged 26 years. Besides the parents the deceased is survived by two brothers, one sister, two half-brothers and a half-sister. The funeral services will be held at the Smith chapel Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Kemper, of Perryton.

MRS. SIDNEY PROAL.

Word was received here that Mrs. Sidney M. Proal, a former well known resident of this place, had died in Brooklyn, N. Y., at the home of her sister, the wife of Rev. Theodore L. Cuyler, and that the remains would be brought to Newark and buried in the Mathiot family lot in Cedar Hill cemetery. Mrs. Proal was the youngest daughter of Hon. Joshua Mathiot, who was one of the most prominent lawyers of the Licking county bar, representing this district under the Tyler administration. The Mathiot home stood a handsome residence of 70 years ago, on the corner of East Main and First street, where the Geo. B. Sprague and Tucker buildings now stand. Mrs. Proal was also a niece of Col. and Mrs. Robert Davidson, old and prominent residents of Newark. Mrs. David Gebhart of Dayton, O., a daughter of Col. Davidson, is here for the interment. Mrs. Proal will be remembered by the older residents of the city.

MRS. SPRAGUE'S FUNERAL.

The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Sprague will take place from her late residence at 25 First street, at 1:30 o'clock, Monday, December 23.

Prices of all living increased, the only exception Mrs. Austin's pancake flour. Same old price at all best grocers.

TAXATION BASED ON ECONOMIC PRINCIPLES.

At the last hearing before the Ohio Tax Commission, Mrs. Mary E. Lee, Grange Editor Farm and Fireside and American Agriculturist, Westerville, stated the case as follows: The intolerable burdens resulting from taxation do not arise from the power to tax, but the methods employed. War have been fought, systems of government overturned to escape "taxation without representation." This has come through faulty and imperfect ideas respecting economic questions. Taxation as an art and a science has not been considered save by a few thoughtful students and they have not been able to test the value of their ideas. The entire effort has been, on the part of taxpayers to get lower valuations and find means of dodging. Is it not time that sound economic principles be applied to the matter of taxation?

Each industry complains of the injustices of the present laws on that business, and all are agreed that gross inequalities and injustices exist. Can a system that has bred such conditions be just? And is there justice in taxing at the same rate that property which has a fixed value, with that property whose value is determined by different men, at different times. One is the result of fixed economic laws, world wide in application; the other simply the opinion of a man elected to place as low a valuation as possible on property. The badness of this principle should have been seen without leaving experience to demonstrate it. Let us amend the Constitution, rid ourselves of the uniform rate which experience and reason alike condemn, and seek a system in accord with correct economic principles. It seems unwise to legislate into the Constitution.

We are no more able to legislate into that instrument wisely for the people 20 or 50 years hence than were our ancestors to legislate for us. The power of the people is steadily growing through the primaries, conventions, initiative and referendum. The universal diffusion of education is enabling the people to judge more wisely each year. Leave them free from constitutional restrictions to work out their own destiny. Perfect laws do not stifle full-blooded, Minerva-like, but are creatures of growth. I would recommend the creation of a tax commission in which each industry is represented, and a political economist of wide experience who could take a survey of the entire state, its sources of revenue and its needs, and could devise laws that would secure a just and equitable distribution of the burdens of taxation. It also seems imperative that the constitution be amended so that that property whose value is fixed shall not bear the same rate of tax as that property whose value is determined by the judgment of men.

THE AMERICAN IDEA.

Individualism the Keynote of Our National Success.

Charles L. Edgar and Walton Clark of the National Civic Federation Commission on Municipal Ownership Show Why American Institutions Should Not Be Abandoned at the Demand of Socialists and Municipalizers.

The efforts of the National Civic Federation have resulted in a commission of Americans whose first interest in this investigation, as in all else, is to do what they may to preserve and continue the American idea and American institutions, believing that the high state of civilization and prosperity in America justifies the American idea and the American method and places the burden of proof heavily upon those who would say another idea and another method would result in improvement in the condition of the people.

Believing this to be the thought and intent of the membership of the commission and of the committee subordinate to it, we still believe that there are ills in the American body politic that may be remedied or cured. We believe that the remedy should be applied and the cure effected without any unnecessary departure from the American idea and the American system. We believe that the framework upon which may be built purity of administration and the highest possible good of the citizens is in existence with us and that it is not necessary in the effort to cure the ills from which the body politic may be suffering to destroy that body. We submit that, living in a land where peace and prosperity are the common lot, we must be very cautious of change. This does not mean that where abuses are found to exist they should not be promptly and mercifully eradicated, but it does mean that changes in system should be undertaken only after conclusive proof that such changes will result in bettering the condition of the individual. We had better bear the relative few ills we have than subject our selves to unknown conditions that may bring in their train greater ills of which we do not know.

Our investigation has determined with certainty many heretofore mooted questions. It indicates the probably correct answers to other mooted questions. Where the facts are clear and the conclusion evident our task has been to summarize and indicate. Where there is remaining uncertainty as to facts and conclusions are not evident we have made an effort to determine the probabilities. This has resulted in arguments based on such facts as our investigators have recorded and on our own experience as operators and observers.

We believe no intelligent reader of the voluminous record of this commission's work will fail to conclude that it clearly proves municipal ownership to be productive of many and serious ills, with little or no compensating good.

The writers of these chapters, agreeing, we believe, with the other members of the committee of twenty-one, that public service companies should reasonably be regulated and afforded the protection that comes with regulation and appreciating that the commission was not appointed or constituted to consider methods of regulation, nevertheless desire to record their opinion that some form of regulation of private companies should be adopted in each of the United States. What that form should be this commission is not prepared by any investigation or any study it has made to suggest.

Finally, we who stand in opposition to municipal ownership, speaking, we believe, for all individualists, arraign the arrogance of many of its advocates in assuming that they exclusively occupy the field of reform in dealing with the problems concerned and that they are the sole promoters of measures of economic improvement in municipal affairs. We assert that the opponents of municipal ownership and operation, firm and consistent supporters of justice, are the class seeking the public welfare intelligently and in accordance with American principles. On this point we do not yield to any body of men.

We seek, as a first principle, to insure every man his own. In doing so and in endeavoring to protect the public against oppression and error we find it our duty to demonstrate the errors in the schemes of municipalizers and Socialists and to warn against the oppression that they threaten. We are resisting efforts to put burdens on the backs of the American people. We cannot and will not remain silent while the attempt is made to thrust costly and impracticable projects upon customers of public service corporations and upon the public at large.

We know the truth will out. We are confident that ultimately the American people must appreciate at their value the unsoundness of the arguments of the municipal Socialists. We shall aid in hastening the day when our fellow citizens will know through discussion what the public of London have been taught by bitter experience. London has awakened to the perils of municipalization, as is evidenced by its verdict in the recent borough and county elections. In that great city the municipalizers have led their fellow citizens astray, and their dupes, finding it out, have administered to their false guides an overwhelming rebuke.

We individualists are not seeking to lead the people in strange paths. Our aim is to keep them in the paths they have heretofore trod—paths well known along which the American people have marched to heights of prosperity and civic development not known heretofore to the civilized world. Along these paths have been stumbling blocks. Our opponents are endeavoring to persuade us the sole responsibility for these stumbling blocks rests upon our public service system, to be remedied only by a change of system. This we deny. We are patiently studying the ways of justice. Municipalizers advocate experimenting at enormous cost with public funds, with the principles of liberty and with the institutions of our country. In this we stoutly refuse to take part.

We are conservatives in believing that it is better to adhere to old and tried methods based on our accepted national principles, but radicals in the determination to discover and to reform, to rebuke and rectify any injustice which may have been developed by the present system. As it has always been the function and duty of government to protect the governed against injustice on the part of these associations of individuals working under the name of public service corporations.

Any government that is too feeble or corrupt to control with justice the conduct of a public service corporation has little prospect of being able itself to supply such public service with efficiency and justice. Our duty is to elect to office men who have the intelligence and integrity to govern efficiently, honestly and justly—men who can and will curb the unjust aggressiveness of the individual or of the voluntary association of individuals and who can and will compel each to bear its share of the burdens of government and give in price, service or otherwise a proper consideration for special privileges enjoyed.

Our nation is what it is industrially and commercially and in world politics because of the American character, developed by the most absolute individualism, and because of the American corporation, developed under a government that governed, but did not trade. Our duty is to conserve the human agencies that have made our country what it is—the adventurous individual and voluntary association—but not to let them be our masters. This is the confession of faith of the antimunicipalizer, the anti-Socialist.

MESSAGE FROM SEC'Y. FARRELL

President, A. A. Stasel of the Newark Baseball company, Saturday morning received a telegram from President Morton of the O and P League stating that he had been notified by Secretary Farrell that all of the members of the National Baseball commission would be present at Cleveland on January 7. Secretary Farrell made the request of President Morton that each club have a representative present, but this was hardly necessary considering the big fight which is expected on the redistricting proposition.

ley of Purity, burned to the ground Thursday night, together with all its contents, including $87 that was hidden under the carpet. The loss will be about $700, with no insurance.
The fire originated from a defective flue.

Christmas Program.
The Cherry Valley school just west of the city will give a Christmas tree and a program pertinent to Christmas time Monday evening, December 23, beginning at 7:30 standard time.
In addition to the interesting program prepared by the teacher and pupils, Rev. Ernest Dillon of the West Side C. C. church will deliver an address. Let all attend.

School Entertainment.
The Christmas entertainment given by the Jacksontown schools in the town hall of that place on Friday evening, December 20, was a grand success. There was a large attendance of the friends of the pupils and the schools to witness the entertainment, which was given under the management of A. K. Buell and Miss Edna Boganwright. The entertainment which consisted of literary and musical numbers, was one of the finest ever given by the schools and was greatly appreciated by those in attendance.

payment by saloonkeepers in Licking county of the Aiken liquor tax, and $23,500 was paid into the county treasury, making a total of $39,500-99 paid in since December 1.

Car Strikes Wagon.
The dairy wagon of G. F. Grove, proprietor of the Grove dairy, was struck by an interurban car on West Main street this morning and one of the wheels was demolished. Mr.
Grove who was in the wagon at the time was uninjured.

ning a law office in room 17, second floor of the Lansing block. Mr. Walton will give special attention to the settlement of estates and conveyances and is licensed to practice in all of the courts.

"Get Him Dead or Alive."
The local police department has received a message from the Columbus police department asking them to arrest John Young, a negro who brutally assaulted Mrs. William Hersey Friday. The order which has been sent to all towns within a radius of 50 miles, also says to "get him dead or alive."

Extra Police on Duty.
Several extra police will be on duty tonight on the business streets, and will work nightily until after Christmas. The crowds are large and as almost every one has money with which to buy presents the chances are that pickpockets will try to get in their work. Chief Sheridan has issued a warning to people leaving their homes unoccupied, to carefully lock all the doors and windows while away.

Christmas Business.
Three of the largest retail dealers in Newark assure the Advocate that their December business up to date is far in advance of that of last year.
Doubtless the same business condition prevails over the city, with perhaps a few exceptions, but the three men who were seen today on this subject were enthusiastic over their Christmas sales. It is needless to add that every one of them has used large advertising space in the Advocate. "Good Times Talk Brings Good Times"

About Judge Brister.
The Dennison, O., Paragraph of Friday, throws the following bouquet to a well known citizen of Licking county. Speaking of the 20th annual Jackson banquet to be given by the Twin City Jackson club at Christmas ville on January 8, the Paragraph says: "It will be noticed that 'Trade Abe' Patrick and Judge E. M. P.
Brister are again on the program, which attests the popularity of these two speakers and Democratic wheel-horses. A Democratic banquet in this neighborhood without Patrick and Brister present, would be something like the play of Hamlet with

IT WILL CURE YOUR COLD.
Ajax Cold Tablets carries the cold off through the circulation, being just laxative enough to assist. It is not a physic. It stops the running at the nose and clears the head. It does not dry the mouth, has no action on the heart, has no unpleasant results and is in no way injurious. Take Ajax when you first notice your cold and it will vanish within an hour. Five or six doses will break up a hard cold. Physicians use it in obstinate cases of pneumonia. It sells for twenty-five cents.

A PROPER EPITHET.

Easy Way in Which a Domestic Rupture Was Averted.

The troubles which are brought to a parish priest for solution are almost infinite in their variety. In a certain Prussian village, says Friedrich August Dressler in "Molke in His Home," an old woman came to her spiritual adviser and proposed a separation from her husband.

"If he would beat me," she said,
"that would be all right; that would show that he was really my man. But he calls me worse names; he calls me a 'subject' I will not stand for that!"

"So, 'subject' eh?" said the priest.
"Yes, that is bad. It is a bad word. I did not think he would say that. But are you sure you understood? Did he say 'subject' or 'object'?"

The old woman shook her head. She was not certain. The priest smiled serenely.

"Ah, I thought so," he said. "Now,
I am sure that is what he called you.
'Subject' would have been very bad it would be hard to forgive that, but 'object,' pooh, it is nothing. If at all, it flatters one."

The woman laughed happily. "And, then, I need not leave him? I can still keep him for my man?" she asked eagerly.

"Certainly," said her mentor, "and rejoice. 'Object' that is very fine, very! I was sure he did not say 'subject!'"

She went away entirely satisfied, and the priest heard of no more disagreements between the couple.

PIPES AND CIGARS.

Smoking Said to Serve as an Index to Character.

A person who smokes a cigar with the label band on is always a vulgarian; a person who displays two inches of ash adhering to a cigar is generally ostentatious; a person who selects a cigar because it is sprinkled with light spots is an ignoramus who credits any popular report, and a person who chews up the end of a cigar or a cigarette is more often than not of an frangible or peevish nature. So says the London Tribune, which adds:

Smoking is also a great test of natural courtesy in any individual. One can trace selfishness, boorishness, self assertiveness, timidity or good temper in a smoker's demeanor in any mixed company. Judging upon the example of Mr. Kipling, it has been asserted that the man who knocks his pipe ashes out behind the parlor couch is usually a genius. But this is a somewhat empty assertion, and at any rate it comprises a belief that is in nowise shared by housewives and landladies.

As a concluding rule for diagnosing character by tobacco habits, it may be accepted that the best men smoke quietly and without ostentation, offer you a good cigar without a preparatory oration on its cost and merits and smoke their pipes and cigars out to the end. When a man is concerned because his friends are not smoking with him, he is a person to be cultivated.

Dates Supplied.

"Don't wait for your opportunity—make it." So read Mr. Kalestalk, who had recently started in business as a greengrocer.

He was still pondering this excellent dogma when his eye caught an item in the sporting columns of the local paper, "Sploston Wanderers Football club requires dates for ensuing sesson."

There was a chance for Mr. Kalestalk, so he wrote to the secretary of the club:

"Dear Sir—I presume you require dates for use at half time. Shall be glad to supply quotation for same either by the stone or hundredweight." —London Graphic.

A Rather Light Meal.

An old South Carolina dandy was sent to the city hospital. Upon his arrival he was placed in the ward, and one of the nurses put a thermometer in his mouth to take his temperature.
Presently when the doctor made the rounds he said, "Well, my man, how do you feel?" "I feels right to'ble, sar." "Have you had anything to eat?" "Yassar." "What did you have?" "A lady done gonne a piece of glass ter suck, sar."—Argonaut.

How Different Here!

With the Persian one cannot discuss his women folk. To ask a Persian about his wife is a grave breach of etiquette. The most you can do is to ask about the "mother of his son." If he has only daughters he does not mention them. They are a misfortune to be "suffered in silence."—London Globe.

The Lovers.

"It seems to me, Mabel," said the girl's mother, "that you've become very fond of Mr. Prettyman in a very short time."

"Why, mother," exclaimed the blushing girl, "how can you say that?"
"I overheard you telling him last night that he was 'too hateful for anything.'"—Philadelphia Press.

HAVE BEEN ORDERED
FROM GOLDFIELD BY PRES-IDENT ROOSEVELT.

NO NECESSITY

For the Maintenance of an Armed Federal Force in Nevada Mining Towns

Washington, Dec. 21.—President Roosevelt yesterday directed the withdrawal on December 20 next of the United States troops stationed at Goldfield, Nev.

Telegrams on which the decision to withdraw the troops is based were given out at the White House. The first, under date of December 17, directed to Governor Sparks of Nevada, and signed by the President, reads:

"I sent the troops at your request, but from the tenor of your telegram and from the representations made me by the two Senators from Nevada and the members of the Lower House of Congress from Nevada it appears that an insurrection was imminent against which the state authorities would be powerless. The troops were sent to Goldfield to be ready to meet a grave emergency which seemed likely to arise, and not to provide a substitute for the exercise by the state of its police functions.

"I do not feel at liberty to leave them indefinitely under such circumstances that they will in effect be performing on the part of the United States those ordinary duties of maintaining public order in the state of Nevada which rest upon the state government. Under these circumstances, unless there be forthwith further cause shown to justify keeping the troops at Goldfield, I shall direct that they shall return to their former stations.

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

The following telegram was sent to Governor Sparks Friday by the President:

"I have received no answer from you to my telegram of December 17, in which I said that unless there was forthwith further cause shown to justify keeping the troops at Goldfield I should direct their return to their former stations. I am informed by three representatives of the Department of Commerce and Labor, who are in Goldfield by my order, that you have stated to them in writing that you will not convene the Legislature to consider a call or troops, nor take the necessary steps to form a safe military force.

"Federal aid should not be sought for by the state as a method of relieving itself from the performance of this duty, and the state should not be permitted to substitute the Government of the United States for the Government of the state in ordinary duties of maintaining order within the state.

"For the reasons given in this and my former telegram I have accordingly directed the troops to return to their former station on Monday, December 20th, next.

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

News of the President's order regarding the Federal troops caused a sensation among the mine owners and the residents of the city generally.
The news was received at noon Friday, and during the afternoon conferences were held between Captain Cox, representative of Governor Sparks in Goldfield, and Colonel Reynolds, commanding the troops here, and between the mine owners and members of President Roosevelt's commission.
President McKinnon and other officials of the Miners' Union said that the possibility of disorder or violence of any sort will be no greater after the removal of the troops than now, and that they will use every endeavor to maintain peace and quiet.

SPIDER AIRSHIPS.

How the Young Insects Sail Away
With the Wind.

In early autumn the spider families separate. Hundreds of thousands of infantile spiders on a warm sunny morning scud the low bushes, cling to the tips of the leaves and project silken threads from the spinnerets at the ends of their bodies. Before very long the air near the ground, becoming heated, ascends and carries up the silken threads with it. Still the little creatures hold on and pour out silk till each has some eight or ten feet of line rising almost perpendicularly into the air above it.

At last they let go and rise into the air themselves, each at the extremity of its own thread. In this way they are carried upward, perhaps for many hundreds of feet, till at last they meet a current of air moving slowly along, and by this they are carried often for many miles, while they can always descend at will by the simple expedient of rolling up their supporting threads.

On a warm autumn morning the air is often filled with these baby spiders, each sailing securely on its own little silk airship. When they descend bushes, trees and low plants are frequently covered with their gossamer threads.—London Standard.

auspices of the New York Athletic of Columbus and a picked team from Newark resulted in Newark winning two out of three games and winning the series by 94 pins. Ralph Roessel of the Newark team had the high individual score, also the high average.

The Newark team will bowl the same team at Columbus on Dec. 29.

BERRYHILL'S "FIND."

Bob Berryhill, Newark's manager, claims to have signed a pitcher who looks more promising than Ed Asher, leading twirler of the O and P. last season, states the Youngstown Telegram. Berryhill is wintering at Lebanon, Ind. He has not been neglectful of his winter duties as manager, Berryhill says. The Newark leader refuses to give the name of his "find," who is described as standing six feet one inch and with a great arm, speed and control.

NEWARK SIGNING PLAYERS.

Manager Bob Berryhill is reported by a Newark paper to have signed a better pitcher for next season than was Big Ed Asher last season, says the Youngstown Vindicator. Catcher Bunny Pierce also writes from Massillon that he has signed Catcher Miller. He also states that Youngstown, Akron and New Castle was after this man. Insofar as Youngstown is concerned Bunny has been misinformed.

FOR TRY OUT.

Cleveland has several recruits that are not expected to take the southern training trip. The Toledo bunch, Chech, Clarke, Lattimore and Perring, are certain—on a trying out; so is young Gladstone Grancy, the Wilkes-barre southpaw. Danbert, the speedy Marion first sacker, looks reasonably sure of a few weeks' trial in Dixie, while Dicky Breen, the fast little infielder from Youngstown, may have his hotel bill paid for three weeks at Macon as well, says Henry Edwards in the Cleveland Plain Dealer.

AKRON SIGNS TWIRLER.

WITH STAGE-LIKE NAME.
Dell DeVone, a southpaw pitcher of New Lebanon, Pa., has been signed by Akron. DeVone applied in person for a berth on the staff. Secretary Palmer, who signed him, thought he was up against an actor name. The other day he walked into the office of Secretary Palmer of the Akron Club and pulled out a string of college credentials as long as his arm and asked to be given a trial. After studying the documents the Akron officials sent De Vone a contract.

BOWERMAN TO BOSTON.

Frank Bowerman, the big catcher traded to the Boston Nationals by McGraw, sent the following telegram to the Boston Herald from his home in Michigan:

"I am very much pleased with the change, as I like Boston very well. I am glad you have Dahlen. I think he is a better ball player now than Mc-Graw ever was."

McGraw cut a slice off Bowerman's salary last spring which, from the tone of the above dispatch, the catcher has not forgotten.—New York Sun.

TROPHY GIVEN BY J. S. DICKERSON.

DR. E. F. GLEASON, BOSTON A A WINNER

he peppered the whizzing leaden pellets, and won the trophy given by J.
S. Dickerson of the New York Athletic club. More than ten thousand blue rocks were broken during the day.

The physician's record was the best ever made in an amateur shoot under similar conditions, and surpassed by one pigeon the tallies made last year by W. M. Foord and F. W. Moffat, when they tied for premier honors.

Dr. Gleason's shooting was a very excellent piece of work, for he had anything but the best of conditions to contend with.

SECOND CHOICE.

There is a Washington lad who it would appear, assents to the old proposition that it is well to have more than one string to one's bow.

The boy was being catechised one day by a well meaning visitor to the house.

"Well, Harry," said the lady, "don't you think you have a chance to be president of the United States?"

"Oh, I don't know," answered Harry, carelessly. "Maybe I'll try for it after I get too old to be a pitcher."

Nordine's Nurse

... By ...
Marshall Cromwell.

Copyright, 1907, by Homer Sprague.

Helen Paget started through the open door of the stateroom with increasing wonder. The single occupant of the apartment lay with his head back against the cushions, his face twisted into the most horrible grimaces. Occasionally he would move his head weakly from side to side, only to return again to his facial contortions.

At last she could stand it no longer, and, leaving her section, she crossed to the door of the stateroom. If the man was subject to such attacks his nurse should not have left him alone, yet she had seen the attendant slip forward to where she knew the café car to be.

"Can I be of any service?" she called as she stood uncertainly in the doorway. The man looked up, with a wan smile.

"Please don't laugh," he said as she approached, "but there is a fly on my nose, and I've been trying for the last ten minutes to dislodge it. I can't use my hands, you see, with a glance at his bandaged arms, and I can't wrinkle my nose enough to scare him off."

Gravely Helen drove off the offending insect with the absurd little square of emerald that she called a handkerchief, and the man smiled gratefully into her sympathetic eyes.

"It must seem absurd," he said, "but that fly was driving me crazy. I told my nurse that he could go forward and have a smoke if he wanted to. I am just recovering from an accident."

"I thought you were having a fit," she explained, with a delicious little laugh. "I have the section just outside of the door, and I sat and watched you until I became afraid that something serious might happen."

"I should have been a gibbering idiot in another minute," he declared. "I never felt so helpless in my life."

"I can understand," she said sympathetically. "It must be awful to be so helpless."

"I am very much obliged to you," he said warmly. "It was very good of you to come to my relief."

"I am glad to have been of service," she said simply. "I shall keep an eye on you. If you need anything before your attendant gets back, just call me."

She went back to her section and took up her book again, but her thoughts were not on the printed page. She was thinking of the man in the stateroom. He was a man to appeal to women; a strong, manly fellow with frank eyes and an honest mouth. His very suggestion of strength seemed to render his helplessness the more pitiful.

SHE FED HIM WITH PRETTY SOLICITUDE FOR HIS COMFORT.

The nurse seemed an inexpressible time returning, and once or twice she went to the door to ask if there was anything that she might do. The second time he asked that she send forward for his nurse, and she summoned the porter.

"That functionary presently returned with a doleful face. 'Ah don't fin' him,' he reported. 'He ain't in the café car.'"

Nordine asked that search be continued, but at the next stop the mystery was solved. The nurse had been left behind at the last station when he stepped out for a breath of air. He wired that he would follow on the next train. Nordine looked dismayed.

"I guess I shall have to wire ahead for a nurse," he said. "Tittus won't catch up with me until we reach Chicago, and in the meantime I shall be helpless."

"Will it delay your trip seriously?" asked Helen, noting the look of disappointment that came to his face.

"My sister is to be married tomorrow night," he explained. "Unless I can get a nurse by wire I shall not get there in time. I am in no shape to make train changes alone."

Helen picked up the message that the porter had written and glanced at it.

"Are you Albert Nordine?" she asked. The man nodded.

"I am Helen Paget," she explained. "I am to be your sister's maid of honor. I came from London, and the boat was late. I was afraid that I should not be able to get there in time."

Why can't I be a nurse? The porter would be better than getting a nurse person, even if you are afraid of the matter by wire."

Nordine looked at her gratefully. "I wish you could see how much an angel from heaven you look to be," he said earnestly. Helen glanced at the mirror and laughed.

"I hope I'm not growing wings," she said. "It would entirely spoil the fit of my dress, and Bertha and I should both be disconsolate. I think I'd rather be just a plain mortal."

"You could not be a plain mortal," he said with an emphasis on the adjective as he glanced into the pretty face. She colored at the compliment and assumed a professional air to cover her embarrassment.

"You must not flirt with your nurse," she ordered.

She sank into the seat beside him that he might not see the pity in her eyes. She knew now the reason for the bandages, for she had read the story of how he had rescued a tiny nephew from the blazing summer home on the Hudson.

To Nordine the world had suddenly grown bright again. He was not able to read and he had been utterly miserable in the solitude of the stateroom, shut off from his fellow travelers in the Pullman. Now, with Helen to talk to, he even forgot the smart of his wounds.

He was a capital talker, and long before the call for dinner came they were fast friends.

He had the meal brought into the stateroom and she fed him with pretty solicitude for his comfort. He wondered if such meals of nectar and ambrosia were ever served upon Olympus, and he was sorry when the waiter at last came to take the tray.

He was still more regretful when the porter came to put him to bed, but sleep came quickly to his contented mind, and in his dreams Helen was with him again.

She came to him in the morning as soon as the stateroom had been made up, and the day passed all too rapidly. He was sorry when at last the long strings of freight cars announced their approach to Chicago, and she left him to get her things together.

His brother-in-law to be met him at one of the suburban stations and rode into the city with them. With his help the transfer to a carriage was easily accomplished. His sister was delighted at the story they told, and that evening as she stood in her bridal finery she whispered to Helen her wish that the girl would be the next of their acquaintances to wear the veil and orange blossoms. Helen blushed and declared the impossibility of such an occurrence, but later in the evening as she stood on the steps watching the departure of the bridal pair Nordine came up to her.

"You'll have to throw my share of the rice, too," he said, with a smile. "Do you suppose, Nell, that some day you could learn to care so much for me that we can drive off together with the rice and the old shoes and the good wishes following in our wake?"

"Perhaps I might learn," she said as her eyes were veiled behind the long lashes to hide how much she already cared. "I think I had my first lesson on the train."

Other guests came near them, and she made a gesture of warning. "Do you know," he said, trying to make his tones careless, "I am going to give Titus double pay because he got lost."

"I think he deserved it," she agreed, with a smile so illuminating Nordine could scarcely refrain from kissing her in the presence of them all, for in the soft brown eyes he read the message and knew that Nell had already learned.

VILLAGE BEAUTIFYING.

How a Massachusetts Town's Experience Can Be Made Profitable.

The handsome memorial hall at North Billerica, Mass., was "taxed to its utmost" when the treasurer of the corporation made the annual award of prizes offered to its tenants for best kept premises, flower gardens, etc., says the Lowell (Mass.) Courier-Citizen. Later in the evening a landscape architect of wide reputation, who addressed the meeting, took occasion to say that in eight years the village had been transformed, and he told the people not to stop at the beautifying of their lawns and gardens with flowers, but to cultivate their spare land for vegetable gardening and thus bring themselves even nearer to the soil and the delights of its recreation.

What has been done in North Billerica can be done in any other village. It is no longer necessary that the manufacturing center should be marked by unsightly architecture, barren yards and unkempt public squares, nor is it true that the man who toils within brick walls has no sense for the beautiful in nature and no regard for the improvement of his home surroundings. We are teaching the children to love the plants and flowers and birds. Why not give them the plants and flowers that the birds may come of their own accord? Any rural community may become the village beautiful, and the residential city street may likewise lift itself above its sordidness and its dirt. The leaf is falling now, the grass drying and the flower has long since gone to seed, but another spring is coming, with its magician's touch for all the earth that has been prepared by nature or the hand of man.

The Main Thing.

"You told him to diet, didn't you?" asked the young doctor.

"Yes," replied the old one; "I told him to eat only the plainest food and as little as possible."

"But this case has been chronic so long do you think that will help him?" "Well, it will help him to pay my bill."—St. Louis Republic.

LEMUEL D. LILLY

Prominent Columbus Attorney Here Sunday to Speak at Taylor Hall Y. M. C. A.

"County Option; What It Will Mean to Ohio," is the topic of Mr. Lilly's address at the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow.

County option will be the great subject at the next meeting of the Ohio Legislature and every man in the city who is interested in civic or social reform should hear Mr. Lilly Sunday. Mr. Lilly comes at the invitation of the committee on Sunday speakers, and was chosen for his splendid reputation as a speaker. This subject was selected because of Mr. Lilly's intimate acquaintance with the work and present plans of the Ohio anti-saloon movement. This is in accord with the custom of this committee to ask the speakers to speak on topics with which they are most closely identified, and that are of general interest to the public and its welfare.

The Association is to be congratulated on its ability to secure so high class talent. Men who have not yet been out to these Sunday afternoon addresses are urged to come out tomorrow and see for themselves what treats they have been missing. Last Sunday many men said that the address of Mr. Pearson was as good as any $50 lecture they ever heard.

Miss Una Marshall will sing. The meeting begins at 2 o'clock tomorrow instead of 3:15. This will enable any to get away for other 4 o'clock meetings that day.

For a good, wholesome, cheap breakfast, always buy Mrs. Austin's pancake flour. Your grocer has a fresh supply.

Remarkable Rescue.

That truth is stranger than fiction, has once more been demonstrated in the little town of Fedora, Tenn., the residence of C. V. Pepper. He writes: "I was in bed, entirely disabled with hemorrhages of the lungs and throat. Doctors failed to help me, and all hope had fled when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. Then instant relief came. The coughing soon ceased; the bleeding diminished rapidly, and in three weeks I was able to go to work." Guaranteed cure for coughs and colds. 50c. and $1.00 at F. D. Hall's drug store. Trial bottle free.

OHIO'S DELEGATION

Will Cut a Big Figure at the Chicago Convention.

AUDITORIUM IS HEADQUARTERS

Ohio's Two Candidates For President Will Have Headquarters at the Same Hotel—Pike County the First to Select Delegates to State Convention—State Affairs.

Columbus, O., Dec. 21.—When Republicans gather at Chicago for the national convention in June the Ohio delegation will attract its full share of attention.

Former Governor Myron T. Herrick, the Ohio member of the national committee, immediately after Chicago was chosen, telegraphed for a reservation of 50 rooms at the Auditorium hotel for the accommodation of Ohio delegates and Ohio members of congress. Mr. Herrick consulted Senator Dick before telegraphing for hotel quarters, believing it to be a part of his duty as Ohio committeeman to see that the Ohio delegation was provided for.

MYRON T. HERRICK.
Ohio Member of National Republican Committee.

These 50 rooms, of course, will not accommodate all the Buckeye Republicans who will go to the convention, but it will provide quarters for all who are required to be there.

Both Secretary Taft and Senator Foraker will have headquarters in the same hotel.

Pike county broke the ice in the selection of delegates to the state Republican convention. Although the call for the state convention was not yet issued, the central committee of that county met and selected delegates to the district and state conventions, the latter being credited to Senator Foraker. It is intimated that the Taft forces will send a contesting delegation, and base the contest on the fact that the committee's action not only preceded the official call, but was not in conformity with Senator Foraker's request for selection of delegates by primary election.

Smith W. Bennett of Bucyrus, special counsel in the office of attorney general the past ten years, will be a candidate before the coming convention for the Republican nomination to that office. His candidacy was formally launched by the Republican executive committee of Crawford county in resolutions of hearty indorsement. There are five minor officials in the statehouse who seek promotion through the state convention. In addition to Mr. Bennett, who would willingly succeed Wade H. Ellis as attorney general; J. M. Snyder, chief clerk in the office of the state school commissioner, will stand for nomination to succeed A. E. Jones; Charles C. Green, cashier in the state treasury, is seeking the nomination for state treasurer; E. M. Fullington and A. J. Corman, clerks in the state auditor's office, are candidates for state auditor.

A Lively Scramble for

As the following statement is based on a poll made by Secretary Taft's most ardent newspaper organ, it is not susceptible to suspicion of any taint of prejudice. According to the poll the alignment of officials, major and minor, at the statehouse, is about as follows:

For Taft: Governor Harris, his secretary, Samuel J. Flickinger; State Secretary C. A. Thompson; State Auditor W. D. Guilbert and Attorney General Wade H. Ellis.

For Foraker, or, as the poll states, on the side of the senators: Adjutant General Critchfield and Colonel Worthington Kautzman; John H. Morgan, state inspector of factories, and most of his deputies; W. S. McKinnon, state treasurer, and Mr. Barnaby, his chief bookkeeper; State Librarian Galbreath; Colonel W. L. Curry, state commissioner of pension claims; General John C. Speaks, state game warden; Orpha Moore, clerk in the governor's office, and Henry Fillman, recently transferred from the secretary of state's office to the governor's office; Fred C. Caley, and almost all the other clerks in the secretary of state's office; most of the clerks in the insurance department and state auditor's office.

Randolph W. Walton of the governor's office has the distinction of being an "original Hughes man," and others are known to have their leanings, although maintaining as neutral an attitude as possible.

That county local option will be the chief temperance measure before the legislature during the coming session is a foregone conclusion. Wayne B. Wheeler, state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, is confident that it will pass. He declined to go into details as to how many votes the measure would have or where they would come from, but contented himself with the statement that there will be votes enough in both branches to make it a law. It is expected that the hardest fight will be in the senate, which was so evenly divided on temperance measures last session. Should the Rose bill pass the senate, its supporters expect to have little difficulty getting it through the house.

Senator Drake, who was chairman of the Cincinnati investigating committee, will return to Columbus quite broken in health. He is quoted as saying: "Worry and work down at Cincinnati undermined my health, and I am afraid I will be unable to do very much this time. I believe that if the investigation had been finished Hamilton county would have been enriched to the extent of at least $2,000,000. Fully $2,000,000 ought to be turned back to the county, I am sure."

Asked what he thought about the county option bill, Senator Drake said: "We have a lot of laws now that are not enforced. I haven't given legislative matters much thought of late, and don't think I shall until I get to Columbus and have a talk with the boys."

Decision to ask the legislature for an appropriation of $350,000 for the state tuberculosis hospital was reached at a meeting of the hospital commission. With this sum it is expected a power plant, laundry, two reception cottages and two sleeping buildings can be built. It is believed that the cost of grading the grounds and equipment of the buildings can all be covered by this amount. When these plans have been carried through the institution will be able to receive 122 patients, and as the needs of the institution grow cottages can be built from time to time. The reception cottages will be of brick and the sleeping buildings of wood. It is hoped to have the building ready for opening Oct. 1, 1908.

A bill that is sleeping in the legislature, having for its purpose the abolition of the position of county infirmarian director, is to be called into life if the movement recently started by the commissioners of Franklin county is sufficiently seconded throughout the state. The ostensible reason for the movement is to save the county treasury the salaries and other expenses now being paid to the infirmarian directors and to turn over their work to the county commissioners.

A question is to be raised in Franklin county that will be of special interest to county treasurers and sheriffs who are serving their second terms, for it will decide whether they will get the benefit of the extension of terms made by the legislature at the session of 1906 under the biennial election amendment to the constitution. It might also affect those serving their first term who desire to be candidates for re-election.

Immediately after the commissioners of Franklin county meet the first Monday in January they will declare the office of sheriff vacant and proceed to make an appointment to fill the vacancy for the interim of one year. Sheriff Karb will refuse to vacate the office, and the question will be raised direct in supreme court by mandamus proceeding, to compel the secretary of state to issue a commission to the appointee of the commissioners. In Franklin county only the sheriff is involved, but in other counties the treasurer is also in practically every county of the state.

This question was raised some time ago by State Secretary Thompson, who requested a ruling from the attorney general, who held that the constitutional restriction of incumbency in such offices for four years in any period of six years does not apply under a special provision of the constitutional amendment and act of the legislature thereunder to bring about biennial elections.

The opinion of the attorney general, given Oct. 15, holds that the biennial election amendment to the constitution holds to suspend every constitutional provision theretofore existing as to any and every office, insofar as such constitutional provision may obstruct the object of the new amendment. Mr. Ellis further declares that the legislature is only given power to make necessary extensions, and could not have extended existing terms of office a greater time than this requires.

Under the ruling of Mr. Ellis the terms of sheriffs are extended from the first Monday in January, 1908, to the first Monday in January, 1909, and the treasurers from the first Monday in September, 1908, to the first Monday in September, 1909.

Beginning Dec. 26, the Allied Educational association, composed of 14 Ohio educational organizations, will hold a convention, continuing until Dec. 28. Among the notable educators who will participate are the following: Superintendent F. B. Dyer, Cincinnati; E. A. Jones, state school commissioner; Henry Churchill King, Oberlin; L. J. Pegg, Columbus; Professor William McPherson, O. S. U.; Drs. W. J. Means and C. F. Hamilton, Columbus; Dr. Alston Ellis, president Ohio university, Athens; Dr. Lewis Bookwalter, president Otterbein university, Westerville, and Guy Peter Benton, president Miami university, Oxford.

The state railway commission has ordered a hearing for Jan. 23, at 10 o'clock, of the complaint of the Ohio Shippers' association against the carriers of Ohio. The shippers requested its establishment of a seventh class for low-priced commodities, and for a distance tariff on such commodities.

A Concert That Failed.

Hans Pfitzner, the composer of "The Rose in the Garden of Love," says the Munchener Neuesten Nachrichten, and a peculiar experience at Cologne, where he had arranged to give a song recital at one of the hotels. In his own account of the "concert that failed," which is in rhyme, the composer says: "Only two tickets were sold after much advertising and the display of many pictures." The purchasers were his friends, who were persuaded that it was a joke. When he arrived at the hotel he found the audience had failed to show up, and he was forced to leave the stage. But instead of allowing this to be the end of the matter, he turned it into a light-hearted comedy, and so was he.

is to learn as to the relative standing and reliability of the leading manufacturers of medicinal agents, as the most eminent physicians are the most careful as to the uniform quality and perfect purity of remedies prescribed by them, and it is well known to physicians and the Well-Informed generally that the California Fig Syrup Co., by reason of its correct methods and perfect equipment and the ethical character of its product has attained to the high standing in scientific and commercial circles which is accorded to successful and reliable houses only, and, therefore, that the name of the Company has become a guarantee of the excellence of its remedy.

TRUTH AND QUALITY

appeal to the Well-Informed in every walk of life and are essential to permanent success and creditable standing, therefore we wish to call the attention of all who would enjoy good health, with its blessings, to the fact that it involves the question of right living with all the term implies. With proper knowledge of what is best each hour of recreation, of enjoyment, of contemplation and of effort may be made to contribute to that end and the use of medicines dispensed with generally to great advantage, but as in many instances a simple, wholesome remedy may be invaluable if taken at the proper time, the California Fig Syrup Co. feels that it is alike important to present truthfully the subject and to supply the one perfect laxative remedy which has won the approval of physicians and the world-wide acceptance of the Well-Informed because of the excellence of the combination, known to all, and the original method of manufacture, which is known to the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent of family laxatives, and as its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well-Informed of the world to be the best of natural laxatives, we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects always note, when purchasing, the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package, whether you simply call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—is the one laxative remedy manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. and the same heretofore known by the name—Syrup of Figs—which has given satisfaction to millions. The genuine is for sale by all leading druggists throughout the United States in original packages of one size only, the regular price of which is fifty cents per bottle.

Every bottle is sold under the general guarantee of the Company, filed with the Secretary of Agriculture, at Washington, D. C., that the remedy is not adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of the Food and Drugs Act, June 30th, 1906.

CASE AFTER CASE.

Plenty More Like This in Newark. Scores of Newark people can tell you about Doan's Kidney Pills. Many a happy citizen makes a public statement of his experience. Here is a case of it. What better proof of merit it can be had than such endorsement? Amos Frey, Toboso seven miles east of Newark, O., says: "I have been entirely free from kidney trouble since Doan's Kidney Pills cured me over eleven years ago. Prior to that time I suffered severely from pains through the small of my back and loins which were always aggravated by the least exertion. If I sat in one position for any length of time, my back became so sore that I suffered untold misery. I used several remedies, but the relief obtained was slight and I continued to grow worse until I was in a serious condition. I finally read of Doan's Kidney Pills and as they were highly recommended for complaints similar to mine, I procured a box at Crayton's drug store. They acted just as represented, going directly to the seat of my trouble and ridding me of all pain. I have always highly endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills and deem it a pleasure to do so whenever an opportunity presents itself." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. LOEB

Will Conduct Cam- paign of War Sec'y Taft

THE PRESIDENT'S PLANS

Are That the Big Ohioan's Nomination be Made Certain

President's Private Secretary An- nounces That He Will be a De- legate From New York.

Washington, Dec. 23.—President Roosevelt just as Secretary Taft winds up his world tour carries the Presidential candidate fighting into New York as a sort of welcome home to the favorite candidate. Backed by Presidential thunder, Secretary Loeb, the rising and visible manager of the Taft boom, comes out and announces that he will be a delegate to the National Republican convention from New York.

This proclamation was made in Washington before Herbert Parsons threw the Hughes endorsement out the window at a meeting of the Republican County Committee of New York. Taken together, the projection of Loeb into the convention and the Parsons coup, the Roosevelt crowd is now considered up and going.

Loeb as a politician is not likely to be the repressed and suppressed meek and lowly man with the constant symptoms of a private secretary. He has been the doorman at the White House for several years, but now his is to be the polished brass knocker and the speaking tube if any Republican politician wants to break in.

Senator Foraker, Speaker Cannon, the Pennsylvania rosters, who are shouting for Knox and Cortelyou's loyal legion are keeping mighty close watch on the silent secretary.

He is doing things, for instance, the stripping of the power to appoint postmasters from the hands of the first assistant postmaster general. Frank Hitchcock is one of Loeb's feats of political surgery.

Taft's boom is now to be the real thing, if the White House has any potency left. For several days men who are supposed to control the delegate making machinery of various states have been reporting at the executive office and they left the pleasing tidings that Taft is it. Senator Fulton of Oregon, who has recently given big patronage that long withheld, has been going around afternoons and evenings spreading the information that his state will send an iron-hooped, non-bustible Taft delegation to Chicago.

Senator Piles of Washington adds his mite; he says that his state is solid for Taft and that no one can get it away from the big Secretary. Senator Borah of Idaho brought word from his constituents, including Governor Gooding, that Idaho is safely and surely in the Taft column. Senator Flint of California and a new political organization out there, called the Lincoln-Roosevelt League, guarantee that the voters from the Golden State will be cast for the President's choice—Taft.

These are the anti-holiday returns from the outlying districts and the Roosevelt rustlers are just beginning to lumber up for the fray in states nearer the center of the country.

Cannon's contingent, consisting almost solely of members of the House from Illinois and a few scattering representations from other states, are supposed to do mighty stunts during the holiday recess.

Cortelyou is ill and his politics have been somewhat anesthetized by his compelled announcement that he is not now sitting in the game. And that leaves the Hughes managers a comparatively free hand to fix up things for their man in the interior counties of New York State.

Foraker is coming to Ohio to devil and destroy Taft's home delegation if he can do it. But Taft is going to be around his own back yard much of the time in the future and there will be a fight the like of which is not to be duplicated in any other state. Roosevelt does not, at his time, contemplate starting battles in New York, Pennsylvania and Illinois. He will wait for results from other states where the favorite son is not a candidate.

A former member of the Roosevelt cabinet, who is now one of the big men in the financial game, was here and consulted with the President. After the evening at the White House, this man said:

time comes and the Republic is in a bad way. The things that Taft is backing that would have Roosevelt they will quit and all get on the Taft bandwagon. Hughes will not get the New delegation, though he really is fighting for it with all his might. Cortelyou won't get it either. Cortelyou, by the way, was considered the strongest man by the New York financial interests, but his chances have diminished. Cortelyou could have gotten more money than any other man, but the way things are looking there won't be a large sum available or anybody. So it will get around to Taft by a process of elimination."

The next big move in the game is likely to be the resignation of Taft from the Cabinet. This is part of the Roosevelt plan of campaign if Taft's intimate friends are posted on future developments. Taft is to go before the country as his own man's man, with many many fulsome recommendations from the President and with Loeb as his manager in chief. It must not be supposed that the President is going to keep quiet when his plan of succession is criticized or opposed. He isn't that sort of a man. He hasn't had a red-hot fight on his hands for a few years and he is just aching for something to break loose so he can be in the middle of it. He is in training and don't want to go stale.

FORAKER AND TAFT ARE BOTH IN CINCINNATI

Cincinnati, Dec. 23.—Secretary of War Taft reached here today and is attending to duties concerning his mother's estate. He refused to talk politics and will return to Washington tonight. Senator Foraker also arrived from Toledo and is attending to private affairs.

OFFENSES OF THE MILK COMBINE

Chicago, Dec. 23.—The December grand jury returned indictments against 15 members of the Illinois Milk Dealers' Association for conspiracy to do an illegal act injurious to public trade.

The indictments are the result of the investigation recently commenced by State's Attorney Healy into the causes for the recent advance in the price of milk.

The Borden Condensed Milk Company, one of the firms against which indictments were returned, is a New York corporation, and is capitalized at $25,000,000. It has two representatives in the membership of the local association.

All of the men indicted waived immunity before they testified and appeared as voluntary witnesses.

The offense charged against the milk dealers is punishable by a fine of $2,000 or imprisonment in the penitentiary from one to five years, or both.

By ARE HOSPITAL WOMEN And Business Men Bought Tickets for a Concert

About 30 days ago a Mrs. Donaghy came to town and called on Mrs. W. N. Fulton, who is president of the Board of Managers of the City Hospital, with a scheme to raise money for the benefit of the institution.

The president of course, was in favor of anything that would secure funds which the institution is in need of, and naturally listened to the plan. The woman said that she would take a few days to look over the ground, and came back in due time with a proposition. She would put on a concert for the benefit of the hospital, and either pay a guarantee of $50, and that the hospital authorities should be at no expense whatever, or they would work the usual percentage divide, providing, however, in either case that it should be expressly understood that the money was to be solicited for the benefit of the hospital.

The guarantee proposition of $50 was accepted by the lady managers, and no conditions or qualifications as to the details as to how the affair should be handled by the promoter, were incorporated in the contract.

About a week ago seven of the prettiest young ladies commenced soliciting the merchants of the city to buy tickets for the benefit of the hospital. They were all good looking, and what they did to the business men was a plenty.

They sold the tickets for the entertainment at $1 each, and the impression they conveyed was, that the hospital was to be greatly benefited, and they raised a sum that the wise ones now put at anywhere from $500 to $1000. The hospital got $50.

It is known that some business men put up $20, but the amount generally runs from $5 to $10.

The lady managers, finding that they had the worst end of a bad contract, got busy, after the money was paid trying to head off further purchases, but it looks as if the promoters having got all that they need, the last of the "winning seven" has departed for other parts.

Some of the men who came up quite liberally say that the solicitors got their subscriptions under false pretenses, claiming, that the girls had enrolled themselves in the training school for nurses in the hospital. Others got the money claiming that the whole corps of the hospital authorities endorsed their action. This is denied by a prominent official of the institution, who said that he never knew anything of the details of the scheme to raise money until one of the beauties tailed on him. And he also said that when the affair was first proposed, he opposed it as unbusiness like, and has opposed it ever since.

One prominent business man told the Advocate that the affair was a swindle, as the solicitor affirmed that she had enrolled as a prospective nurse, and the official who passes on applicants told the Advocate that she had never applied to him for a position, and he was the party that all applicants had to pass, as he was chief of the hospital staff of physicians.

They were turned down several times by some shrewd business men, one of whom called up the managers and told them they had no need to resort to such schemes to raise money for such a purpose, but to put him down for $20. Another business man claimed the solicitor said the money was to be applied to furnishing a new room, a director's office, and the inference was that there would be more than enough to do it. But the $50 guarantee was not mentioned, which amount would not go very far for such a purpose.

The lady managers made a protest to the promoters as to the way things were being handled, but they were curiously referred to the letter of the contract, and there is no recourse for the recovery of the money unless it can be proved that the solicitors actually misrepresented as to how the money was to be divided.

To show how good the graft was, one of the young ladies told a boarding housekeeper that her commission amounted to $5 per day. As any rate, whether or not it is a bad business transaction it is not a good thing for the welfare of the hospital, as they have paid their coin with a habit of giving whenever solicited, and are likely to be a little tight hereafter when approached for help.

The company who will give the entertainment is the Cecelia Concert company of Cincinnati, and are said to only play big towns, and are all artists, but at any rate it looks like they have got away with the money. It is alleged that the same outfit is now "working" Columbus.

PRESIDENT Receiving Many Christmas Presents— Will Eat Christmas Dinner in White House.

Washington, Dec. 23.—As usual President Roosevelt and his family will eat their Christmas turkey in the White House, and on Thursday will go to Pine Knot, Albemarle county, Va., where they expect to remain until the following Tuesday. While in Virginia the President and his family will spend the time riding and tramping and probably do a little hunting. The President has already received many Christmas presents from his admirers, and during the next few days the mail and express deliveries at the White House will be unusually heavy.

GREENE AND
SERVE TERMS

Washington, Dec. 23.—The Supreme court of the United States today denied Ben D. Greene and John P. Gaynor a review of the judgment of the lower court. This ends the noted case. Greene and Gaynor must go to the penitentiary to serve their sentence of four years and must also pay a heavy fine. They were convicted in connection with the Savannah harbor frauds.

SIX-YEAR TERM FOR THE PRESIDENCY

Washington, Dec. 23.—Senator Cullom introduced a joint resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution limiting the terms of the president and vice president for a second term.

"I introduced this resolution," said Mr. Cullom, "at the suggestion of an association of Chicago. I introduced a similar resolution two years ago, but nothing was done with it by the committee on judiciary. It was not brought out with reference to any present condition. I do not wish this resolution introduced is meaning that I am not for the president. But it seems wise to have it fixed how many terms a president should have. Surely we should know whether a President should have more than two terms. Such an amendment would stop all the bickering we have over this question. I propose to get some action on it by the committee on judiciary if possible."

STRIKERS KILLED.

MAN CAUGHT AT DAYTON

Says He Lay in Wait for Mrs. Hershey at Columbus, and Then Throttled Her.

Dayton, O., Dec. 23.—John Young,
the negro arrested Saturday night after having been made captive by William Landon, conductor on an incoming Big Four passenger train, turned over to the police as the suspected assailant of Mrs. W. B. C.
Hershey, wife of a prominent manufacturer of Columbus, O., confessed about 2 o'clock Sunday morning. His confession was made to Detective Tu-bias, who went alone to the Central police station at 3 o'clock and remained with the accused until the admitted his guilt. The negro expressed the hope that he would not be returned to the scene of his crime. However, the Columbus police were immediately notified and he was returned to that city.

While making his confession Young broke down and between sobs related the shocking story of the assault upon the defenseless woman. He said that he was angry because he had been discharged by the Hersheys and that he took this terrible course to "get even." Young declared that he went to the Hershey home about 9 o'clock Friday morning and not seeing any one around the place, sneaked into the basement, where he remained concealed until Mrs. Hershey went into the cellar. He then pounced upon her and, fearing she would scream, he secured an old dress skirt and stuffed a part of it down her throat. Before Mrs. Hershey screamed and he hit her over the head, and while she was in a helpless and half unconscious condition he accomplished his purpose. His victim is 60 years of age.

TENEMENT FIRE CAUSES DEATH OF FIRE CHIEF

New York, Dec. 23.—Frederick Koenig lost his life, and acting fire chief Poling was probably fatally injured in a tenement house fire early street, returned to help his sister and her family, and went down with a falling floor. Poling fell by the stairway collapsing under him, and plunged through a window three stories to the pavement.

BILLY RICE DEAD.

Philadelphia, Dec. 23.—The funeral

OFFICIALS MUST WAIT A YEAR.

ing to get appointments under incoming administration, City Solicitor E.
K. Campbell gave an opinion to the effect that retiring city officers, either the city in any capacity until after a year has passed.

"LYNCH HIM!" Yelled the Crowds at Columbus, But the Quick Action of the Police Saved Young.

Columbus, O., Dec. 23.—Cries of "Lynch him! Kill him!" greeted the arrival from Dayton Sunday of John Young, the negro who confessed to assaulting Mrs. William B. C.
Hershey at her home in this city last Friday. Precautions had been taken to keep the arrival of Young here a secret and the train was stopped at a crossing outside the Union Station, where a patrol wagon and a squad of officers were waiting to take the prisoner to the police station.

Several hundred men had quickly gathered at the place, however, and the crowd surged around the negro as he alighted from the train and hostile cries were made, but the police whisked the prisoner away so quickly that no actual violence was attempted.

BIG STRIKE ON AT HAMILTON

Hamilton, O., Dec. 23.—About 1,000 workmen went on a strike at the Champion Coated Paper company's

the company abandoning the 8-hour

REPUDIATES HIS CONFESSION.

that he was a member of the "Thir-

entered the left cheek and went upward through the head, and that Dr.

coroner to regard the death as suspicious.

A package securely bound, sealed and addressed to the dead man's wife was found by the police and it is thought that this may shed some light on the case.

was shot in the back last Saturday night by Charles Miller, died yester-dicated that Lane was running

Rescuers are Retarded

Cases

And it is Expected That from Now on the Work of Identifying Will Proceed Rapidly.

Jacobs Creek, Pa., Dec. 23.—More bodies were taken from the Darr mine this morning, bringing the total recovering up to date 51. It is expected that many more will be brought out as exploring parties have reached the headings beyond the "swamp," where the dead men were at work. From now on the recovery of victims is expected to be rapid. Death overtook the victims in various postures, several of the men died praying, as was shown by the attitude of the corpses.
They had knelt down, and raised their hands in supplication when the deadly after damp snuffed out their lives.

Very many of the dead, perhaps 50 per cent, will go to their graves unmarked. Coroner Wynn said: "I will see that every effort and opportunity are given to identify the dead. All that is possible will be done and yet I fear that it will be impossible to recognize. I would not be surprised if less than one half are not identified."

Those unidentified are being removed to a special tent morgue, after they have been confined. Here the public is to be admitted daily from 9 to 3.

Work is now being delayed by dangerous gases. Many of them are mere fragments of rotten flesh, broken bones and burned clothing. Prompt measures for the temporary relief of the needy and destitute are now being taken by the Pittsburg Coal company.

"FIGGERS"

Prove That Newark Paid Eastern Clubs Greatly in Excess of What We Received From Them.

The four eastern clubs who have been objecting to this city as a paying ball town should study the figures of the receipts which they received as their share from Newark and then compare them with what they what they paid us while the Melders were playing in their cities. The following figures were compiled by Secretary Hopkins and Manager, Maurath and are absolutely correct:

games, $1,097.36.
Youngstown paid Newark or eleven games $737.40.
Newark paid Sharon $666.22.
Sharon paid Newark $327.00.
Newark paid New Castle $776.15.
New Castle paid Newark $520.
It will be seen from the above that Newark paid each of the four eastern clubs of the circuit more money than we received from them. True we only paid Akron $4.40 more than they paid us but the fact should be taken into consideration that Akron opened the season here and the first three days, May 1, 2, and 3, it snowed and was very disagreeable. Had it not been for that fact we undoubtedly would have paid them several hundred more. We paid Youngstown $359.96 more than they paid us and Youngstown was only here for eight days while we were in Youngstown for eleven.

This surely doesn't speak well for that city which claims to be the best ball town in the O. and P. circuit. We paid Sharon $139.16 more than they paid us and also paid New Castle $256.15 in excess of what they paid this city.
Youngstown, Akron, Sharon and New Castle have no reason to knock this city. Figures will not lie and we proved a better ball town than either of the four dissatisfied cities in the east. These figures will be shown at Cleveland and will prove conclusively that we are just as good a drawing card as either one of them.

WILL SPLIT UP O. P. LEAGUE.

If the national commission fails to split up the O. P. league, Newark and its side partner, Zanesville, may hold the deciding hand, says an Eastern exchange. If the eastern clubs

ALL A PIPE

Club Officials Deny Alleged Sale to Zanesville.
I do not think that President Carver of the Central league, or Secretary Irwin of the Western club have taken any steps to dispose of Canton's franchise, said Manager Williams of the Canton club, in discussing a report from Zanesville to the effect that the two managers had agreed to admit the Ohio Valley city into the circuit.
Neither Carson nor Irwin have consulted local interests. It would hardly be probable that they would guarantee to Zanesville the Canton franchise, unless they had advice from this city. As the matter now stands, Canton will be in the Central league when the 1908 season opens. The only defection that can occur would have to occur from the January meeting at Cleveland, between the national association and representatives of cities in this section who have undertaken to have baseball territory redistributed.

 disciples that a conjunc-

 astrological wisdom and peculiar fortunes of the Israel. Other explanations adventitious than illuminating have been given; some, that it was the "Star of Jacob," the "Angel of the Covenant," the divine Shekinah; others that it was special star, a miraculous manifestation designed for the particular guidance of these men across the eastern deserts, even as the fiery pillar was a particular, divine intervention in piloting the Israelites through the Wilderness of Sinai.

Now whatever be the truth in reference to the wise men from the East, we must not lose sight of the fact which they had discovered in endeavoring to account for that fact. For to us also—many of us—a star has appeared which is rather spiritual and symbolic, than astrological or astronomical. And it is in this symbolic sense that we wish to consider our text.

Stars arise as truly in the virtuous heart as in the vaulted heaven, and we utter the very essence of poetic truth when we designate them as
 "The Savior's Stars." And such a star
 —whether it be a brilliant solitaire, or a dazzling constellation, is invariably the Star of Hope. The star of hope can shine in no other place than the dim immensity of gloom, and Heaven ever looms aloft in the light of the Savior's star. Hear Isaiah express the dawn of Hope!
 The people that walked in darkness beheld a glorious light." The mariner on life's deep, though sorely storm-tossed, is not discouraged so long as he can steer his course by the light of the star. This star of Hope glimmering o'er the vast expanse marks the pathway to the presence of the King. So is it therefore the star of Home. "A little child shall lead them."
 An old legend says that when the men of Nazareth became depressed they used to say, "Let us go and look upon the Son of Mary!" The face of Jesus extended hope as the star its rays, and there was healing in His countenance. It is said that the first century was the darkest in human history. There is no beauty in darkness save as it is relieved by light, and to the vigilant Magi the stars of doom which had one by one disappeared into the night of Erebus simply prepared them to receive the divine vision. The feeble light of Herod's star seeks to quench the luminous rays of the Savior's Star. But the fiery sword of the morning light is stronger and warmer than the hard scintillations of the night of darkness.

BOARD OF PUBLIC SERVICE.

AN EDISON DISCOVERY.
 Thomas A. Edison, the electrician, married his wife in Akron. On one of their journeys to Mrs. Edison's home they both took bad colds. Mr.
 Edison was in bed, all stowed up and thought he had pneumonia, the family thought he had and was reported in newspapers all over the country that Mr. Edison was in Akron sick with pneumonia. The family physician, Dr. Foltz, was called in and gave them both Ajax Cold Cure
 —no other medicine. It cured them up so quickly that Mr. Edison sent
 Mrs. Edison's brother down to Dr.
 Foltz's office to find out what the medicine was. He told the doctor that Mr. Edison said it beat anything he ever saw, and would like to know its composition. Dr. Foltz says he has never had a case of pneumonia develop where he got Ajax Cold Cure in ahead of it, and that if he finds the patient has pneumonia when he gets to the bedside, he always gives Ajax Cold Cure anyhow, that it will cure pneumonia quicker than anything he knows of.

A panel in a wooden door

been a small man or a boy who red.

Two suits, a top coat and a heavier overcoat, two fancy vests, a hat, seven silk skirts valued at $7 each were taken, possibly something else is missing, but an inventory will show the exact amount of the loss. It is estimated by the manager to be about $100. After the robbers entered the place they carefully turned out the lights and began a systematic search for the goods they desired. In every case the clothing was either size 34 or 35; that hat was 6 7-8 in size.

A suit and overcoat was boldly removed from the window that faces on the square. The desk was also ransacked and three blank checks on the Licking County Bank, and some foreign papers of no value were taken.
The burglars probably made their exit through the front door. Footprints were discovered on the carpet by the boy that swept out this morning, but he continued his sweeping before the police had a chance to investigate them. It is the opinion of the police that two men, a large one and a smaller, are doing the work, and may have a boy with them to do some of the work.

The McDonald shoe store was also entered during the night some time and the thieves also pursued the same tactics. The lights in the store were turned out and the men completed their work. Several pair of shoes were taken to the back room and evidently tried on as the soles of several shoes were dirty from contact with the floor. A pair of $5 shoes, size 7 1-2, gun metal finish, were taken and probably some others, but they have not yet been found. A small wooden desk was also taken to the back room and rifled, but nothing of value was in it for the robbers. How they gained entrance to this store is not known as every thing was secure this morning.

When Miss Ethel Brown, a clerk at the Griggs store, was returning to her home from work Saturday evening, she noticed two men, one tall and heavy set, the second short and slender, working at the kitchen door at the home of Jesse Wilson, 59 Prospect street. She watched them for a few moments and then ran to her home 65 Prospect street and called her father, Mr. Samuel Brown. They watched the men for a few moments and then phoned to the police. Before the arrival of the officers Mr. Brown frightened the men away. They hung around for some time as about 1 o'clock they were seen standing farther down the street. One of the men was complaining of a sprained ankle as a man passed them standing in the shadows.

The police are hard at work on the different cases and are making a thorough search of the city and the surrounding country, but the meager description is all they have to go on.
Residents of Newark should take extra precaution in locking up their houses while away as it may save the loss of some valuable articles.

The home of Charles Kirk, 245 North Fourth street, was also picked out by burglars for some work, but some work, but they were frightened away before they had a chance to make an arrest.

Mayor McCleery's last full week in office started off well Monday morning and several cases came up for his attention. Ed Target, an old regular, was drunk and resisting an officer.
Ed will spend his Christmas the guest of Sheriff Redman, as he was fined $10 and costs. Two other drunks were given the usual fine.

Clyde Smith and Earl Betts of Barnesville were taken in Saturday by Detective Roberts for train riding.
They were given the usual fine and stone pile.

Albert Summerville, who was loitering around the B. and O. depot, was arrested by Officer Laning. He got the usual loiterers prize.

A young man, very much the worse for liquor, made a disgusting spectacle of himself in the Orplum theatre Saturday night. He was taken out of the theatre by Officer Brooke and locked up. The usual fine was given him.

SALOONISTS TO SERVE SENTENCES.

Mt. Vernon, Dec. 22—Charles Copper and James Stoyte, saloonists of this city, were taken to Columbus on Friday to serve a sentence in the workhouse imposed on them by Judge Seward. Hardly a saloonist in the city escaped a fine or sentence for violating the Sunday closing law or for running a gambling house in con-

Christmas Session.
The regular session of the court will be held Christmas morning to care for the cases coming up today and tonight.

National Open Tonight.
The Franklin National bank announces that it will be open this evening from 7 to 8 o'clock for the benefit of those who desire to transact business before the Christmas holidays.

Spending Holidays.
W. F. Sheridan, inspector of transportation for the L. & N. railroad, with headquarters in Louisville, will arrive in the city tonight to spend Christmas with Chief of Police Sheridan and other relatives.

Royal Neighbors.
The Royal Neighbors of America are earnestly requested to attend the funeral of Mrs. Catherine Smith, at 7 p. m. Wednesday, December 25, at the home, 351 Clinton street, and to assist in their services.

Ruby at Postoffice.
The Christmas business is swamping the local postoffice forces. Extra help has been provided and the carriers and clerks are working at high tension. The business is said to be the largest ever handled by the Newark office.

A Lucky Phone Girl.
Charles Bader appreciates good telephone service, and the lucky miss who answers his phone is now aware of the fact. The "hello girl" is employed at the Citizens' office and this morning received a 14 pound turkey for her Christmas present from Mr. Bader.

At Y. M. C. A. Next Sunday.
Dr. A. H. Riker, president of Mt. Union college, Alliance, O., will give the New Year's address at the Y. M. C. A. next Sunday afternoon. Dr. Riker will talk on a subject of interest and value to all men, young and old. His topic is "The Sign of Men." This will be a frank and scientific discussion of the social evil. All men, young and old, invited. No boys under 16 allowed.

Boys Stole Razors.
Benjamin J. Harter, another young lad of Newark, is resting in the county jail waiting to see what disposition will be made on his case. Harter and another boy he says he doesn't know entered the room of a peddler at the Commercial hotel Saturday night and stole several razors. The other lad has not been apprehended and the paying for the razors by an aunt of Harter's may release him.

Mistake Made.
A regrettable mistake was made in Monday's Advocate, concerning the illness of Motorman J. W. Shannon of Tenth street. It was stated that he was removed to the Sanitarium, but he is still at home, and although quite ill, is improving rapidly. It was Mr. E. A. Cochran, the planing mill man of Tenth street, who was taken to the Sanitarium, suffering with double pneumonia. He is still very ill at this writing.

Three Drunks, That's All.
Alva Sparks of St. Louisville, was in police court this morning as a result of a pre-holiday jag. Sparks tanked up good and strong while here Monday and when he caught the train to return to his home last night he was feeling fine. On the B. & O. train his conduct was decidedly disorderly, and Detectives Bennett and Roberts took him in tow and returned him to Newark. He drew five and costs this morning. Two other plain drunks were given the usual present.

Boys Cottage at Lake.
Mr. Edward Mithoff, cashier of the Hocking Valley Bank, on Monday disposed of the cottage erected by Harter Smith at Buckeye Lake. The purchaser was John W. Vogel, the well known minstrel manager, who will take possession in the spring. The consideration was not made public. The cottage is probably the best if not the most costly on Buckeye Lake. It is beautifully located and complete in every detail. Close by this is the Jaeger cottage which is occupied in summer by relatives of Mrs. Vogel, who was a Miss Corrodi.—Lancaster Gazette.

WHO LAUGHS LAST, LAUGHS BEST

To one who has had experience in soliciting for the hospital, it is not surprising that Mrs. Fulton should accept with alacrity the offer of $50 without labor or worry, as the net proceeds of the concert, for she and her able assistants know how hard it is to give a beneficial entertainment in Newark and clear $50. Allow the interpretation of a problem. If it took one of the most attractive women in Newark one hour's talk to get 25 cents from one of the most influential bankers of the city for the hospital fund, how many attractive women and influential bankers would it take to raise $50 for the hospital? Experience is a good teacher, and the lesson that the Newark women have learned from their experience is, that hereafter, when there is any soliciting to be done, to employ girls who live out of town. They can well afford to pay them 50 per cent and still have money to burn.

Did they do the men? Well I guess they did.

This is the day of the commerce of the world. Jollity and good cheer attend all, and while the gifts betoken the glad attuning of the heart to the carols that usher in the day the chimes of churches should bring remembrance of the Giver of All Good.

May those less fortunate in the ranks of the strivers be not forgotten in the universal feeling of gladness. May the children, whose own anniversary it is, hold unchallenged sway in all households.

Let the greetings of the day be happy and hearty, and infused with all that should be enshrined in the wish again extended of a Merry Christmas to all on the morrow.

SCHOOL TEACHER BODILY USED UP ARRESTS FOLLOW

An infraction of the rules forbidding snowballing at Nashport school was responsible for three cases in Justice Carson's court and of a great furor in the villages of Nashport and Irville. Prof. G. H. Lapp is the plaintiff in the three cases, and he charges Frank Dever with assault and Fred and Charles Dever with aiding the aforesaid Frank Dever in the above alleged assault.

In brief the story is that the teacher, Prof. Lapp, chastised Charles Dever, aged 17, for snowballing. It is said. On last Friday it is charged, Frank Dever, married, and a resident of Columbus, and Fred Dever, also married and living at Irville, waylaid the teacher and chastised him in turn. The charges were filed Saturday afternoon. Lapp bore traces of rough usage.

Charles Dever entered a plea of not guilty. Frank and Fred Dever have not been located by Constable Deitrick.

"THE GIRL'S WORTH A CLEAR MILLION."

plain dishes. A chef will be so—so chic, and you know Miss Lenox has been used to everything. He—a chef is he, isn't he, John?

"Why, yes, I suppose so. That has always been my impression, though I don't suppose there is any law about a girl filling the position. The manager in this case only stated that a chef could be had for two days."

"Well, it's a man, of course. Now, hurry to the telephone, please, before some one else gets him."

She waited until her husband returned from the telephone, nodding.

"Says the chef will be up at 1 o'clock sharp, Julia. Now I'll go downtown and order the Christmas trimmings and things."

At 1 o'clock sharp a cab rolled up to the door, and a girl alighted. Mrs. Botsford's countenance fell a little, but rose as the girl opened the gate and went toward the side entrance. It was the chef, though but a girl, and

"NOW YOU MAY LEAVE ME IN CHARGE."

At 9 o'clock that night after the palms and mistletoe and holly had been arranged Sarah suddenly burst upon them with face full of consternation.

"The chef!" she gasped. "She's gone—left entirely! I was at the range, watchin' the turkey, an' she come in with her hat on an' said that everything was ready, so I could attend to it now, an' she left this note for ye."

"But why did she go?" gasped Mrs. Botsford. "I thought—"

"She said everything was all ready," Sarah repeated stolidly, "an' that I could attend to it now. There," as a clear car tinkled outside; "that's her car startin' now. She said she wanted to catch the 9 o'clock."

Mrs. Botsford opened the note with trembling fingers. As she read she frowned, looked mortified, laughed and finally passed the note to her husband, with shining eyes. "She's all right," was her only comment. The note read:

"Dear Mrs. Botsford—You really must forgive me. I had an errand downtown and so called at your house an hour earlier than I intended. Thinking that I would stop there awhile, and then perhaps you and I would do the errand together. A sight of your lovely dress—themums drew me straight through the gate to the side entrance. Then you opened the door, and some way we drifted into the kitchen before I quite realized what I was doing. Then your strains and a remembrance of former triumphs conspired to do the rest. I really do love cooking and have taken a lot of courses in special things. I think I have excelled myself this time and believe you will be satisfied with the result. Sarah and the second girl can manage the rest very nicely. I shall do my errand now and will stay with my aunt at the Marlborough tonight. It will be more convenient. You may expect us quite early tomorrow morning. Lovingly, MARGUERITE LENOX."

NEWARK MERCHANTS' PHENOMENAL TRADE

That the business men of Newark have been doing a phenomenal holiday business this year is evidenced by the fact that for several weeks the stores have been crowded with shoppers from early morn until late at night. A prominent Newark business man told an Advocate representative Tuesday morning that he was doing the largest holiday business in his experience. "And I give a large amount of the credit for this business," he added "to the Advocate's advertising columns, in which I have given the public information from day to day concerning my stock."

Taking it all in all, the "dull" holiday trade in Newark may be considered as one of those occurrences which Josh Billings eloquently described as among "the things that never happened."

Remarkable Rescue.

That truth is stranger than fiction, has once more been demonstrated in the little town of Fedora, Tenn., the residence of C. V. Pepper. He writes: "I was in bed, entirely disabled with hemorrhages of the lungs and throat. Doctors failed to help me, and all hope had fled when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. Then instant relief came. The coughing soon ceased; the bleeding diminished rapidly, and in three weeks I was able to go to work." Guaranteed cure for coughs and colds. 50c. and $1.00 at F. D. Hall's drug store. Trial bottle free.
